Instructor:      Dr. Fred DiDomenico, DC

Bio:

Dr. Fred DiDomenico graduated from Los Angeles College of Chiropractic in 1987. He knew immediately that Chiropractic was his life purpose and sought after the truth of Chiropractic principles with passion and intention. He believed a subluxated spine caused disease and morbidity and it is our responsibility as Chiropractors to correct the spine to help patients live to their highest potential of health and longevity.

Over the years he opened 4 practices in 3 different states - California, North Carolina and Washington over the span of 14 years. All of these practices were spinal corrective based using CBP techniques and functioned at a volume of 500-700 patient visits per week.
